

Logrea Dance Academy Students Always striving for excellence

When you are serious about dance, there is no time for a summer respite. For Logrea Dance Academy students, many choose to stay close to home and continue their training at the school's locations in Ossining and Briarcliff. However, a number of LDA students are encouraged to take part in challenging auditions for limited placements with summer programs offered by some of the most prestigious ballet schools such as: Alvin Ailey, American Ballet Theater, Boston Ballet, Central Pennsylvania Youth Ballet, The Rock (Pennsylvania Ballet School), Orlando Ballet School, San Francisco Ballet, Syracuse Ballet, Studio Maestro and Walnut Hill.

These Putnam and Westchester County students from Logrea Dance Academy were accepted in the following Ballet Schools for summer programs:
